Alpass (right)*

The Health, Work and Retirement study is a study of people aged 55 years and over who are living in New Zealand. The study provides information on issues such as health, work and retirement, which are relevant for research and policy now and into the future. Through this research, New Zealanders can share their experiences of ageing and inform national and international discussions.

The Health, Work and Retirement study began in 2006 and is run by Massey University's Health and Ageing Research Team (HART). The study is led by Professor Christine Stephens and Professor Fiona Alpass from the School of Psychology. To date, over 14,000 New Zealand residents aged 55 and over have been surveyed.

Why have I been contacted?

As one of our valued past participants, we are inviting you to participate again, as we would like people who have filled out a survey before to complete this new survey. You will be providing important information regarding changes, or lack of change, in your circumstances over time. Collecting this information over time is what makes the Health, Work and Retirement study so valuable for understanding ageing. As a token of appreciation, everyone who returns the survey will be entered into a prize draw to win one of four $40 supermarket vouchers. The first prize will be drawn in October 2022, and every six months until all prizes are allocated.

Will my data remain secure and confidential?

All information provided is completely confidential and will be used only for the purposes of health research by approved researchers. It will not be possible to identify individuals in any dataset, or any report or publication from the study. We use a unique ID code printed on the top right-hand corner of the survey booklet to identify who has returned the survey. The research team also uses ID codes to link responses to surveys returned from the same participant over time. Survey responses are always stored securely and separately from your name and address details.

What do I need to do?

Participation in the Health, Work and Retirement survey involves filling out the enclosed survey and returning it. This should take about 45 minutes. You can return the survey in the freepost envelope supplied. Even if you do not consent to data linkage, you can complete the survey and return it to us. Participating in either part of the study is entirely voluntary.
