N-3-9 Dairy Records Archive (DRA)

Note: During the 1960' and 1970's there were frequent mergers and liquidations among New Zealand's co-operative dairy companies. At the time Mr Eric Warr was researching New Zealand's dairy industry and the Massey University Librarian, Mr Lloyd Jenkins, was trying to assist with the location of information. As the dairying industry is part of New Zealand's history, and Massey University began as an agricultural college, Mr Jenkins felt that if no one was prepared to locate, acquire and preserve these business records an important primary source of New Zealand history would be lost. Consequently he travelled throughout the North Island making personal contact with dairy companies and collecting extant business records of merged or liquidated companies. In time Mr Jenkins' crusade became known throughout the dairying industry and business records were rescued, some literally from rubbish dumps, and sent to Massey University.

As amalgamations have continued the Dairy Records Archive archivists have endeavoured to acquire the records of companies that ceased to exist, with varying success. During the late 1980s and early 1990s we also acquired some records from non-dairying sources. In the 2000s the Archive has expanded its scope to include anything of an agricultural nature.

The records are primarily business records. They consist of minute books, financial records, share registers, milk production books, company histories, legal papers, photographs, architectural plans, etc. Not all records for all companies are held. In many cases records have been lost. For some companies the DRA have almost complete holdings, for others the Archive may have only minute books or financial records, or a company history. There is a non-electronic inventory of materials held in the archive. The contents of the archive are also listed on the Community Archive database which can be accessed at: www.thecommunityarchive.org.nz

The DRA is the largest archive of business records associated with the New Zealand dairying industry. The rest of the extant material is held by Fonterra, the few remaining independent companies who still hold their records, and in regional museums. The DRA holds comprehensive collections for Northland, Taranaki, Wanganui, Manawatu, Southern Hawke's Bay, Wairarapa, Christchurch and the Banks Peninsula, and Southland. Some records from companies in Auckland, Bay of Plenty, King Country and the South Island are also held. The company records for Tui, Manawatu or Kiwi are not held by the DRA.

The Archive and its inventories are maintained by the Dairy Records Archivist and the material is available for use within the University Archives by appointment only. Some records may only be used with permission of the owning company. Archival materials cannot be removed from the premises.

N-3-16 New Zealand Food Awards

Note: A collection of publications produced to highlight the winners of the various categories in the New Zealand Food Awards.

The Food Awards started in 1986, having been conceived and championed by Professor Mary Earle with support from the company PRINTPAC (later owned by Carter Holt Harvey).

In 1998 Massey University took over the stewardship of the awards and decided to relaunch them under a modified banner – the Massey University Food Awards – from 2000. From this year the awards were held every two years. It is unclear if awards were held in 1998 or 1999.

The awards were relaunched again in 2010 as the New Zealand Food Awards in association with Massey University. From this point the awards were held annually.

Publications are not presently held for 1986-1987 or after 2008.

| | | Baedeker, Karl, The Dominion of Canada with Newfoundland and an excursion to Alaska (Leipzig: Karl Beadeker, Publisher, 1907). The book originally belonged to Beatrice H. Russell who acquired it while the Mrs Ethel Russell and daughter Beatrice returned in March 1918 to New Zealand (via North America) from the UK during the end of World War I. The half title page is signed in ink, "Beatrice H. Russell". The significance of the book lies particularly in the Ethel and Beatrice's itinerary (handwritten in pencil on the end papers) of their journey from New York through Canada to Vancouver and then Victoria - a journey of about 16 days. Arthur and Ethel Russell's last remaining son, Guy, had died of influenza early in 1918. | 1907 | |

N-3-18 COVID-19 Pandemic Collection

Note: As it did across the world, the COVID-19 Pandemic disrupted life at Massey University dramatically. Apart from essential services staff, University students and staff had to work from home and teaching shifted to an online mode.

This collection of material captures the experiences of our students, staff and others during and after the Pandemic.
